

I oppose any weakening of the current Indiana law pertaining to the telephone privacy act. I do not believe it is in my best interest to be subject to calls from anyone, even if I do have a business relationship with them. They can communicate by mail if necessary. This is a very important privacy issue that should not be allowed to be weakened by big business.